Select Boarding and Day School,

HILLSBORO', N. C.

THE SPRING TERM OF THE MISSES NASH and MISS KOLLOCK'S School will commence Feburary 7th, 1868, and close June 26th, (twenty weeks.) Circulars forwarded on application.

Nov 30—3m

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868. The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past season, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

TERMS MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine, using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the very FINEST and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

OUR PRINCIPLES.

We support the great principles of government now contended for by the Democratic party of the North, and the Conservative people of all parties, North and South.

1. Peace, real peace and harmony, among all sections and peoples and States, that compose the United States of America.

2. Devotion to the Constitution of the United States, and to a united Union, under the Constitution.

3. The military subject to the civil authority—obedience to law and the observance and promotion of order, as determined by the Courts of Justice in the land.

4. The Constitution of the United States, and all laws made in conformity thereto, as construed and defined by the Supreme Court of the United States, are the supreme law of the land.

5. Freedom, kindness, longevity and justice to the negro race among us, but the inherent and inalienable rights of the white race to govern the State and the country.

6. The reserved and constitutional right of the States to govern and regulate their own internal affairs, without restraint by the Federal Government.

7. As the only hope of preserving peace, law and order, and promoting the general welfare, we are unalterably opposed to negro suffrage, negro office holding, negro juries, and a negro militia, and are in favor only of a white man's government. When a majority of the white people of this State, by their free and unrestrained choice, shall deem it wise and best to grant political franchises to such of the negro race as shall merit them, by their intelligence and virtue, we shall then, and not until then, yield our opposition.

8. Finally, we humbly acknowledge the Providence of the Ruler of the Universe over the affairs of nations and of men, and submit to whatever evils He may inflict for our discipline, with uncomplaining obedience.

THE CHARACTER OF OUR CONVENTION.

Gov. Vance, in his speech, surveying the material of which the great Conservative Convention was composed, as truly as eloquently remarked: "Here are no Whigs,—no Democrats;—no Know Nothings; but simply an outpouring of intelligent and patriotic white men!"

That was so. There were no old prejudices nor lingering party predilections in that body. The leading representative men of all the old parties, into which the people were formerly divided, were there. There were Weldon N. Edwards, and Thomas Bragg, and Mr. E. Manly, on the one side,—and William A. Graham, and Z. B. Vance, and Charles Manly, on the other. There were men who formerly advocated the right of secession, but who have accepted the issue of the war as decisive against them,—and men who never recognized that doctrine as sound or tenable. There were men who gave the war an earnest support, and gallant spirits, who had fought on many a bloody field in the armies of the South,—and there were, on the other hand, men from the North, and such men as Lewis Hanes, R. A. McLaughlid, Thos. A. Allison, and others, who, during the struggle, never wavered in their devotion to the Union.

Nothing but a sense of the great peril which surrounds the Union, the State of our affections, and the honor and interests of our race, could have brought together so extraordinary an assemblage. Nothing but the ties of a common kindred and lineage could have fused such formerly variant elements. Every true friend of Republican liberty and Constitutional Union, every man who believes that the Anglo-Saxon race is, and must be, the superior race, and who is determined that this fair heritage of ours shall not be placed beneath the heel of African domination, will help on, by active co operation and effort, the work just inaugurated by the Patriots of North Carolina, in Convention assembled.

COMPLIMENTARY.—There was one feature of the late glorious State Conservative Convention, that must have been especially gratifying to Plato Durham, Esq. In no instance was his name mentioned, whether simply in enrolling the names of delegates or otherwise, without a demonstration of applause. Such an evidence of the appreciation in which Mr. Durham's friends hold his manly and patriotic course, in the so-called Convention, is in the highest degree flattering. He, and Mr. Graham, and the others of the small band of Conservatives, in the mongrel Convention, are making for themselves a warm place in the affections of the true people of North Carolina.

THE ATTENDANCE of the ladies, in such numbers, during the sittings of our great Convention, gave great pleasure to the body. They are almost foremost in every good word and work, and their approving smiles and cheering presence added greatly to the enthusiasm and spirit of the occasion. The women of North Carolina are with us in our efforts to prevent the debasing rule of the negro supremacists and scalawags, and the degradation of the State.

GOV. VANCE told the truth, when he said, in the course of his great speech, in the Conservative Convention, that the negroes of the State had, as a general rule, behaved well enough, under the peculiar circumstances by which they were surrounded, and that, when they had gone astray, it had been at the instigation of white miscreants. The latter were so vile and contemptible that the colored men were, in all respects, infinitely their superiors.

ORGANIZATION—THE CANVASS.

The following is a list of gentlemen who have been appointed Canvassers of the Counties named, under the resolution adopted by the Conservative Convention, on Thursday, as a part of the Plan of Organization. It will be observed that appointments are yet to be made for a number of Counties. It is desirable that recommendations for all the Counties, in which appointments are not specified, be forwarded, at once, to the Secretary of the State Executive Committee, R. C. Badger, Esq., and official announcement of such appointments will immediately be made.

Let the Canvassers go actively to work, visit every section of their respective Counties, enlighten the people, address them, and spread information, in every possible way. Let the District and County Committees see that the enrolment of Conservative voters is effectually accomplished. In one word, let the spirit which animated the late glorious Convention be diffused among the white men of North Carolina, and we can defeat the unholy purposes of the apostates, and save North Carolina from the ruin and degradation which they would force upon the State—its white men, women and children,—for the sake of office and plunder, only attainable, by them, through the agency of negroes and a few traitors to their own color and race.

"The Democratic Party in these 17 States are represented in the United States Senate by seven men, and in the House of Representatives by thirty three, while the 1,554,945 Radicals have thirty four Senators and one hundred and four members of the House."

THE "CONSTITUTIONAL" CONVENTION.

The proceedings of this body, on yesterday, will be found peculiarly characteristic. The adoption of the report of the Committee on removing disabilities, presented by Hood, negro, from Cumberland, will no doubt bring up some queer and not very pleasant reminiscences. The report proposes to relieve all who favor and enter heartily into the promotion of Congressional Reconstruction, and suggests that the names of such persons, and a brief biographical sketch of each, shall be presented. We thought, about the time that the body talked of expelling our Reporter, of advertising for "pedigrees" or biographical sketches, and would inform the body that we have some quite rich ones on hand which we may furnish it, or the public, in some short time. Let us have the pedigrees.

The speech, on yesterday, of McDonald, of Chatham, was peculiarly rich, and we beg to commend it to the special attention of the white people of Chatham. He, John A. McDonald, a white man, (so called,) we are told, declared that the "honorable member from Wake," J. H. Harris, (negro,) was equal in talent and intelligence to W. A. Graham, Zebulon B. Vance, or any other Conservative in the State!!

In fixing the qualifications for Governor and other officers, Mr. Durham proposed that no negro should be eligible to the Governorship or other Executive office; this was VOTED DOWN promptly, (see vote,) and when he also proposed that no one should be eligible, who could not read and write, the previous question was promptly applied, to stifle discussion. Mr. D. characterized the conduct of the majority as infamous.—The ultra Radical character of the body becomes more and more apparent daily. We learn that some one has been sent from Washington, urging the Convention to greater moderation and liberality.

THE CONSERVATIVE PLATFORM.

The platform of principles set forth by the Conservative Convention, on Thursday last, will be read with interest, and will be heartily endorsed by the true men of North Carolina. They commend themselves to the intelligence, virtue and patriotism of the State.

They declare, in terms which cannot be mistaken, their unalterable devotion to the time-honored principles of Constitutional liberty, and their fealty to the government of the United States, and their anxiety for peace and harmony with the entire nation—that the Constitution is the source of all power in the administration of the government—they protest against the enforcement upon them of the Reconstruction policy of Congress, against the consent of the white men of the State, and declare their decided opposition to negro suffrage and negro equality, and that this is the absorbing issue before the people; but while they are opposed to negro suffrage, they are ready to accord to the negro every thing necessary to protect him in his civil rights.

The Convention, fully advised of the depressed condition of the people, declares that their condition demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief from the Legislature. The endorsement of the patriotic efforts of President Johnson, to restore the Union and harmony of the American people, was but a just compliment to his eminent services. Equally appropriate is the endorsement of the Supreme Court, as the legitimate expounder of the Constitution. The obligations of the people of the South to the efforts of the Democratic party and Conservative people of the North, are very properly acknowledged, and the determination to send delegates to the National Democratic Convention will meet the general approval of our people.

The Conservative people of the State have thus flung their banner to the breeze and nailed it to the mast head. That banner shall never trail, till the white people of the State are acknowledged to be the ruling power.

The cause of virtue and peace and good order demand that every true man in the State shall do his duty. Let there be no drawing back. In the language of the gallant Vance, "we must work and take courage, as victory will give us triumph."

From Holden's paper, Jan. 14, 1862.

"Fight! Fight!!" Five letters contain the only solution of the difficulties which now hang over the Confederacy. We talk of combining our forces—of withdrawing from the sea-coast—of advancing into the Northern States—of the disaffection in the North—that she is growing tired of the war—that she is bankrupt—that she cannot raise more forces—that France and England must interfere, and all that, but we repeat, what we have often said, that nothing will do but TO FIGHT. We must fight everywhere—all the time—wherever the enemy shows himself—and we must fight for victory—for peace—for independence—for bread—for everything."

From Holden's paper, July, 1862.

"The abuse and falsehood of the partizan press of the State, now heaped on Col. Vance, is a melancholy proof of the degeneracy of the times. In vain does he disclaim party in his letter, and warn his countrymen against it in this trying crisis; in vain does he peril his life on the field of battle, in defence of the homes and firesides of his revilers,—they still pursue him with a ferosity which can see nothing in him to commend or admire, and which, for partisan purposes, would destroy his fair fame as a soldier and a Southern man. But, the people of the State will sustain and vindicate him. While he is fighting at Richmond they will talk for him and vote for him at home. And the soldiers too will vote for him. They know he is their friend, and that he is no partisan, and they will stand by him; not only in battle, but at the ballot box."

One Bates bets that he will go through the Southern States with an American flag and without a cent. Butler bets Bates. He "went through" a section of the South with an American flag, and left the section without a cent.

EDITORS FINED AND IMPRISONED.—Col. Galloway and Mr. Ruea, editors of the Avalanche, have been fined $250 each, and sentenced to seventy days' imprisonment in the county jail for contempt of Judge Hunter's court.—Memphis Paper.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

FRIDAY, Feb. 7, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. J. W. Hood, negro, of the Convention.

Mr. Redman presented a memorial from John Roberts, praying for a divorce. Referred.

Hood, (negro,) from report in the room, called for "political pedigrees," asking delegates to furnish the names of persons whom they think entitled to relief.

Mr. Durham moved to lay the report on the table, and called the yeas and nays thereon. The call was sustained, and the roll being called, the vote stood: Yeas 13, nays 89.

Hood, (negro,) moved the adoption of the report, and called the previous question.

Mr. Durham said: "I see there goes another ungentlemanly cur to the infamous gag law." The call was sustained, and the roll called. Yeas 87, nays 5. So the report was adopted.

Mr. Morton, a resolution that a copy of the Relief Bill be sent to the Sheriffs and Clerks of Courts, in each county.

The rules were suspended and the resolution adopted.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) moved to reconsider the vote upon the resolution having an afternoon session. Agreed to.

Harris, (negro,) then moved to amend, by striking out "4 P. M." and insert "7."

Mr. King, (c) being objected to, the motion, and preferred the resolution as it stood.

The motion of Harris, (negro,) was put; when Mr. King called the yeas and nays.—The call was sustained, and the Secretary called the roll. The motion was lost, Yeas 42; nays 58.

Mr. Congleton's resolution, raising a select Committee of eight, to confer with Congress, asking a loan of ten millions, or some such other sum as can be procured, to be applied, first, to purchase surplus lands in the State, with a view to provide homes for the homeless; second, to form a nucleus around which to commence a system of universal education; and third, to develop the great agricultural resources of the State, was next taken into consideration. Mr. C., in the course of his remarks, in advocating the measure, described the great destitution among all classes—particularly the negroes. To the claims of the race he devoted most of his argument. Their hard, unrewarded labor, when slaves; their gallant services during the war; and, more particularly, their intense devotion and adherence to the Radical Party. Without food and assistance, all the wrath of the Conservatives, as pictured by Col. Vance, would be poured upon their heads. He continued his remarks for some time, from the drift of which, it could be clearly seen, that the resolution was intended to be a big party bid for the votes of the negro race.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, was a friend to the colored man, but at first he was opposed to freeing them; now the boot was on the other leg. In alluding to his friend, "the honorable delegate," J. H. Harris, of Wake, (negro,) he said that in point of intelligence and talents, he would pit him against Gov. Graham, Gov. Vance, or any other Conservative in the State. He had learned his trade under a colored man, and if he could meet that colored man, to-day, he would give him half,—yes all—of his per diem; if he wanted it.

Mr. McD. favored the resolution, of course.

Mr. Watts said he would move to amend, by striking out ten millions and inserting "a sufficient amount."

Mr. W. then proceeded to advocate the measure in some further remarks.

Hood, (negro,) desired that it should undergo some further amendments, and be referred to some appropriate Committee.

Harris of Wake, (negro) was opposed to any measure of this kind, of a "complexional" or political character. It should be upon the broad grounds of justice and humanity, irrespective of complexion or politics. Pending the discussion of this resolution, the hour of 12 o'clock arrived, and

The President announced the following gentlemen as a select Committee in relation to the Underdue divorce case, viz: Messrs. Merritt, Fisher and Harris, of Wake, (negro.)

Mr. Sweet, by consent, introduced a report from the Committee on Legislature, in relation to a former report, which was recommitted to them. Ordered to be printed.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The report of the Committee on the Executive Department was taken up.

Mr. Durham moved to strike out, in the 1st section, the words "Lt. Governor, Superintendent of Public Works, Superintendent of Instruction and Attorney General," and on that called the yeas and nays. The call was sustained. The roll being called, the vote stood: Yeas 37, nays 85.

Mr. Durham moved to strike out "four years" and insert "two," as the term of office. Lost.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, asked to be allowed to record his name in the negative on the vote, taken yesterday, on this subject. Allowed.

Mr. Ashley renewed his call for the previous question upon the section, as amended.

Mr. Andrews called for the yeas and nays. The call was sustained, the roll called, and the section, as amended, was adopted: yeas 77, nays 29.

Mr. Durham moved to amend section 2, so as to require the Governor and Lieutenant Governor to have been citizens of the United States for twenty years, and citizens of North Carolina for five years, and be able to read and write. The yeas and nays called for, resulted: yeas 14, nays 72.

Mr. Holt moved to amend, by having a freehold, of the value of $2,000.

Mr. Rich moved to amend by striking out "2" and insert "10."

Mr. Holt accepted the amendment, when Mr. Rich took water" and withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Durham asked for the yeas and nays. The vote stood: yeas 15, nays 83.

Section 2nd was then adopted.

Section 3rd adopted.

Mr. Graham moved to strike out, in section 4, the words "and laws," in the 5th line.

Mr. Heaton concurred with Mr. G.

Mr. Tourgee objected; he was not willing to vote for a man for Governor who did not swear to support the laws.

On demand, the yeas and nays were called, and resulted: yeas 42, nays 54.—Lost.

The section was then adopted.

Sections 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9, were adopted.

In section 10th, Mr. Graham, of Orange, said this (requiring the Governor to nominate and the Senate to confirm) overturned our old established customs. He wished the gentlemen to go on record in this matter, and called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. Heaton moved to amend, by striking out "Senators elect," and inserting "Senate." Carried.

The yeas and nays were refused to Mr. Graham.

The section was then adopted.

Mr. Rich moved to insert a new section, giving the Governor a veto power.

Mr. Heaton objected. As an argument against it, he cited the example of the President of the United States.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, objected to the proposed new section, as it stood.

Mr. Ashley moved to lay it upon the table. Carried.

Section 11, slightly amended, was adopted.

In section 12th, Mr. Redman moved to amend, by striking out, in the 1st line, the "impeachment of the Governor, and insert "conviction of the Governor," on impeachment."

Mr. Jones, of Washington, favored the amendment.

Mr. Tourgee was opposed to it.

After a good deal of debate, the amendment was rejected. The section was then adopted.

The President here announced the Committee to re-district the Congressional districts, viz: Messrs. Tarin, of the 1st Partridge, of the 2nd, Fisher, of the 3rd, Harris, of Wake, (negro,) of the 4th, Trogden, of the 5th, Hobbs, of the 6th, and Leach, of the 7th.

The report was received.

Section 13 was adopted.

In section 14, Mr. Rich moved to strike out, in lines 3rd and 12th, the words "or office." Lost.

The section, as amended, was adopted.

Sections 15, 16 and 17 were adopted.

Mr. Durham offered the following as an additional section, to come in as the 18th section:

"No person of African descent, or of mixed blood, shall be eligible to the office of Governor, Lt. Governor or any other Executive office."

The yeas and nays were called, and the following gentlemen voted in the affirmative, viz:

And the following in the negative:

Messrs. Abbot, Andrews, Ashley, Barnes, Blume, Bradley, Bryan, Carey, (negro,) Candler, Cherry, (negro,) Chilson, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Duckworth, Eppes, (negro,) Fisher, Forkner, Franklin, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Garland, George, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Wayne, Grant, of N. Young Men.—Rev. T. H. Pritchard, at the request of the Young Men's Christian Association of this City, will deliver a sermon to Young Men, at the Baptist Church, to-morrow (Sabbath) evening, February 8, 1868.

This is the first of a series of sermons to Young Men, to be delivered at the solicitation of the Association, on the evening of the second Sabbath in each month, by the different Ministers of the City, in turn.

Smoking Tobacco.—D. W. Courts, Esq., of Rockingham, has laid us under many obligations for a box of fine Smoking Tobacco, of his own raising and preparation.—It is pleasant to have such remembrancers, and we will think gratefully of our old friend the ex-Treasurer, as we whiff the fragrant weed.

Fine Oysters.—We have heard it said that "it is an ill wind that blows nobody good." We were in hopes to have seen Gen. Leach, of Davidson, at the Conservative Convention, but his failure to come made us fall heir to a box of splendid Harker Island Oysters, which our mutual friend, Mr. G. W. Taylor, of Beaufort, had sent to Gen. Leach, if here, and, if not, to be placed in the care of the Senior, for his own consumption. General Leach missed a treat, but he may enjoy them by proxy, for we assure him they were very fine. Friend Taylor will accept our hearty thanks.

Regret.—We put on a large extra number for the Daily, on yesterday, and yet we regret that we were compelled to send to our subscribers, at Fayetteville and other points and to our exchanges, only half a sheet, which, however, contained all the reading matter of the Daily.

Religious Services.—Rev. H. P. Northrop, Pastor of the Catholic Church, in this City, will celebrate Mass, to-morrow, at 10½ o'clock, A. M.

It was a rare scene—that which the "so-called" presented on Wednesday last. It had been given out that the needy patriots could draw the amounts due (so called) for mileage, and they flocked to the point of disbursement like so many crows to a pack of corn. It was difficult to get a quorum, which so disgusted Mr. Jones, of Washington, that he plunked his Radical brethren handsomely. He said, in effect, and truly, that the sight of a few dollars had unfitted them for anything like Constitution-making, and that their only thought seemed to be the "replenishment of their pockets."

Western Vindicator.—Our friend, R. A. Shotwell, Esq., proposes to publish a Weekly newspaper, in Rutherfordton, bearing this title. We refer the public to the Prospectus, in our advertising columns, with the remark that we know no man better capable of conducting a sprightly live journal, than Capt. S. We wish him all success, and will take pleasure in forwarding his enterprise in every manner within our power.

Stephen Worth.—This honest freedman is known and read of all who have his acquaintance, as one of the most truthful, worthy and honest men among us. He claims a place in our columns, to notice a slander perpetrated upon him and his friends, to which, we confess, terms are employed, which we should not like to see commonly used by colored people towards white people, who, by their deportment and position, deserve respect. We can only justify such language or apology as for it, when it is employed by colored people towards those whither who claim and assert that the negro is equal to the white man.

Mike Lipman, in the circus business, has gone into bankruptcy at Cincinnati; liabilities, $32,500; assets, one live buffalo, three bears, one wild cat, one pony, one dog, one monitor wagon.

Our glorious Convention has been greatly entertained by the elegant new pictorial which has been lately placed by the doors of each of the patriots. Great was the glee of the colored members that each of that paper had kindly prepared them for its learning. The Committee on Education have taken the matter in hand, and propose that the publisher forthwith concoct a series of illustrations, in aspects of our Nursery songs, for the use of the members; and direction will be given that he be paid for the same, five hundred dollars per each of these elegant engravings, out of the Library Fund. The first series will be illustrative of the excellent Nursery rhyme upon that exemplary matron, old Mother Hubbard. It may be deemed premature to publish, at present, those excellent works, as the corn field members cannot be presumed to be able to read them yet, though it has been remarked that they are usually very busy, at their desks, in drawing sketches of roosters and fat hogs, with occasional sketch of a long tailed mule. Much time and stationery are consumed by these elementary lessons, and with the progress of these official illustrations, they may soon be able to read the Constitution which they are now so busily engaged in making. It is not, therefore, so much for the neophytes in Constitution-making, as for their special guardians and overseers, that two or three verses are here recited. The Committee on Education may be able to suggest the appropriate cuts to be placed over each of the following stanzas:

"Old Mother Hubbard went to the cupboard
To get the poor dog a bone,
When she came there, the cupboard was bare
And so the poor dog had none.

This, evidently, refers to the election in 1804, and our memory can easily suggest the particulars. The intense groanings of the poor dog, while begging for a bone, will constitute the beauty of cut No. 1. He wore a very lugubrious face for a long time after that sad day. And it has not become perfect in its beauty yet.

The second stanza of old Mother Hubbard to be illustrated is as follows:

"She went to the baker's
To buy him some bread;
But when she came back
The poor dog was dead."

The Committee will observe that the poetry loses its gallop and subsides into tender surprise. It changes its metre and rhythm—and beautifully subdues itself into extreme sadness, much after the style of the elegy on John C. Calhoun, which a few years ago electrified all true hearts.

"Star of the South! thy beams are lost
Here in this heart that weeps thy loss, &c."

Much skill will be required to hit the right expression of the dog, in this predicament. Unlearned, simple people, might suppose that was the end of him—and that the dog was historically and emphatically and sure enough dead. It was no such thing. He was a sly dog, and was playing possum. He died only metaphorically and as it were in a joke. He died with one eye open—and twinkling at the fun of the thing—and laughing at only that sinister eye can laugh at the simpletons whom he was fooling. The artistic difficulty of fixing pictorially the peculiarly cunning and wicked expression of this deceiving and winking optic of the otherwise apparently defunct, will readily occur to any votary of the pictorial art. The third verse comes at you with a rush—and your eyes open extensively—betokening the greatest amazement at the resurrectionary abilities of a poor dead dog.

"She went to the undertaker's
To buy him a coffin;
And when she came back
The dog was a laughing."

Time was that when the brains were knocked out, the man would die. And at all times, when a dog's chitterlings were so empty and attenuated as to be fit for fiddle-strings, the dog might be safely pronounced a defunct canine. This strange story has so bewildered certain learned antiquarians, that they have conjectured that some mistake has been made by the legendary poet, and that the historic muse was really recording the antics of a gunning Hyena, growling over the dead; or, it may well be (with a very allowable poetical license) that the animal was a semi Hyena, and the other half possum; or, peradventure, sometimes the one, and sometimes the other. There are strange anomalies in nature, and some are recorded in natural history—specially so, when aided by inventive poetical fancy.—Is it not possible, metamorphosically, that animal miscegenation may have produced a hybrid, embodying in itself the detestable peculiarities of each of these disgusting brutes? Sly, deceitful, treacherous and savage?

On this picture the artist must exhaust his utmost skill. It is a great subject for his easel and brush. If he succeed, he will win an immortality of fame. Ought not the Committee on Education and the School Fund to import a No. 1 painter from the Hub of the Universe, who may sketch truly and with skill, the laughing Hyena, biting the leg of his kind old mother, because she could not give him bones to gnaw as fast as he wanted. It will only cost twelve or fifteen thousand dollars—and what is that pitiful sum to a great and growing and prosperous people, such as we are, under the patronage of the kindest and "best benefactors" the sun ever shone on!

X. P. G.

Mr. Williams, of Sampson.—We notice that the Committee on Privileges and Elections have reported in favor of unseating Mr. Williams, one of the delegates duly elected from the county of Sampson, and to admit thereto a Mr. Hall, his Radical opponent. The fact that he is a Radical, we presume, is the only reason for the report, and most probably the action of the Convention. The Yankees and negroes at Raleigh desire to imitate their progenitors at Washington City.

But what right have those "bargers on horseback" to decide upon such a question? Gen. Canby, acting upon returns transmitted to him through Colonel Frank, has issued his order giving the seat to Mr. Williams. The Commander is the proper judge under the Reconstruction Acts, and he has rendered his decision. The votes of the county were deposited and counted under the direction of his appointees, and transmitted to him through the regular military channels. The rebel government of the county and the State had nothing to do with the election.

Acting under the authority vested in him, Gen. Canby has already ousted two persons claiming to be delegates, and put others in their stead, and if there had been any good or sufficient reasons why Mr. Williams should not have been sworn in, he would have included his case in the order. At any rate, he claims and has exercised the authority to decide this question, and the Convention need not "wrangle sits," by pretending to have any power in deciding upon the qualifications of its own members.—Wil. Journal.

One Hundred Years Old.—We learn from our neighbor, Mr. L. D. Orrell, that his father, Daniel Orrell, of Davidson, reached his hundredth birth-day on the 24th ult. He was a captain in the war of 1812.—Greensboro' Times.

Agassiz has been to see Stanton with a view to classify him. But he is a wonderful scripturient as to Agassiz, visit and various acts in the acquaintance of that gentleman with the lower orders of animals.

For the Sentinel.

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 7th, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—A plain, old, unpretending freedman, attending to my own business and leaving other people to attend to theirs, I find myself, without giving any cause for it, thus thrust before the public in the Standard, of yesterday:

"For the Standard.

The Star Chamber, alias the so called Conservative Convention, sitting in the Assembly Hall, (supposed to be open alike to all shades of political opinions)—but the learned sons of chivalry possibly imagined that some of their Solon-like ideas might be communicated to the poor "Mudsills of Society," they therefore introduced a resolution to order all such poor plebeians to take back seats in the public square. I was always under the impression that anything good loved light rather than darkness, but this august body seem to be so much afraid of its own shadow, that they prefer darkness rather than light, and very politely invited into the street several gentlemen who came to listen respectfully and attentively to the words of wisdom that might fall from their sages' lips.

ONE OF THE VICTIMS.

Raleigh, Feb. 5, 1868.

We learn, in addition to the above, that Stephen, the only colored Conservative in Raleigh, was also turned out. Stephen is one of Gov. Worth's employees. "This was the most unkindest cut of all."

"Oh Stephen! where you gwine, Stephen?"

This is not the first time that I have been thus referred to before the public. I have been abused by the Republican, of this city, the publisher of which is now an absconding forger of a two dollar note; I have been sneered at, in speech and bad rhyme, by that crazy vagabond and doggerel writer for the Standard, Jim Taylor, and ridiculed by the blackguards who preside over the last named paper; all of whom ought to be beneath the notice of an honest freedman, though he be an "employee." I am an "employee," nor am I ashamed of my employment, for I obtain my living by honest work; not by forging notes, like the publisher of the Republican; nor by the charity of Lincoln relatives, like Jim Taylor; nor by spying, like the editors of the Standard.

The cause of all these attacks is that I have chosen to vote as I pleased—that I have chosen to exercise the rights of a freeman, as a freedman, aye, a FREEMAN, and made so by the same act of Congress which branded upon the brows of W. W. Holden the stamp of "DISFRANCHISED TRAITOR."

In regard to the assertion, in the foregoing article from the Standard, that I have been elected from, or "turned out" of, an assembly, private in its character, and into which I had, improperly gone, it is without the slightest foundation in fact, as I was not, at the time referred to, within a half of a mile of the assembly in question; and, I believe, Ex Provisional Governor, William W. Holden, when he penned the statement, felt that he was writing down the words of an INFAMOUS LIAR.

I am personally responsible for what I say and do.

STEPHEN WORTH.

Prentice on Congress.—The Louisville Journal comments as follows on the Rump:

"All the infamous measures pending in Congress have direct or indirect reference to the Presidential election. Nothing else can command even for a half day the attention of the Radicals in that body. The people of the ten proscribed States are starving to death and groaning under the shocking burden of military and negro rule, yet Congress, far from considering and attempting to abate these horrors, is intent on aggravating them four-fold for the sake of the next Presidential election. We have the most monstrous public debt that the civilized world ever heard of, and it is crushing the nation to the earth; yet Congress, instead of attempting to devise and practice means for the alleviation of the burden, seeks to increase it indefinitely by playing the wild and profligate spendthrift, and insisting that a thousand millions of dollars shall be added to it by the payment in gold of what the law only requires to be paid in currency—and all this for the sake of the next Presidential election. The most atrocious of military despotisms is to be established, the nation to be miserably bankrupted for half a century, and two departments of government to be made as nerveless and fleshless and bloodless as graven images, and many other kindred outrages to be perpetrated—and the whole for the promotion of the radical chances in the next Presidential election."

The President Grows Plucky.—In reply to a question by your correspondent as to what course he would take in case the Senate refused to take any action on the nomination made in place of Mr. Rollins, and laid it on the table, the President said he should probably then be compelled to make a direct removal of Rollins, although this would be in contravention of the tenure of office law, and would no doubt cause a new agitation of the impeachment questions.

He said the time had arrived when he was either compelled to ignore the Constitution itself or an act of Congress clearly unconstitutional, and it was not his purpose to hesitate, although impeachment be threatened.—Washington Letter in New York Post.

Grant and Greeley.—The Hartford Times learns that Horace Greeley last week, in conversation with a Republican friend who was groaning over the prospect that the Radicals would have to swallow Grant, said to him: "You needn't give yourself any trouble about Grant. He stands no chance whatever for the nomination at Chicago."

In his message to Congress recommending the constitutional amendment President Lincoln said: "The plan is proposed as permanent constitutional law. It cannot become such without the concurrence of, first, two thirds of Congress, and afterwards three fourths of the States. The requisite three fourths of the States will necessarily be adverse ones of the slave States."

The Macon Telegraph says: "Jacob Thompson, one of the distinguished American exiles abroad, recently received a remittance of $80,000 in gold—the proceeds of a sale of his lands lying along the Mississippi river. Before the war he was the richest man in Mississippi—his wealth being over one million dollars."

The Georgia Convention has been in session over thirty days, at a cost of not less than $100,000, and has not yet begun to approach the duty marked out for its performance.

MISCELLANEOUS.

North Carolina Land Agency.

Having associated myself with Gen. J. J. Imboden, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public, FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c., in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

D. W. COURTS.

Jan. 9th, 1868.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I have very recently perfected this organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. Page, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest mercantile respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c., in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. Courts, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished writer, Colonel Edmund Jennings. Col. William Gilham, for the prompt and able analysis of all ores that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

Terms.—For selling lands, five per cent. commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the amount or contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

DAILY SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1868

SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

BY R. P. WILLIS.

I love to look on a scene like this,
Of wild and careless play,
And persuade myself that I am not old
And my locks are not yet gray;
For it stirs the blood of an old man's heart,
To catch the thrill of a happy voice
And the light of a pleasant eye,
Where the young and the gay rejoice.

I have walked the world for four-score years,
And they say that I am old—
That my hearts-ease size is the reaper Death
And my years are well nigh told.
It is very true—it is very true—
I am old and I "bide my time,"
But my heart will leap at a scene like this
And I half renew my prime.

Play on! play on! I am with you there,
In the midst of your merry ring,
I can feel the thrill of the daring jump
And the rush of the breathless swing;
I join with you in the fragrant hay
And I whoop the smothered call,
But my feet slip up on the seedy floor
And I care not for the fall.

I am willing to die when my time shall come,
And I shall be glad to go—
For the world at best is a weary place
And my pulse is getting low;
But the grave is dark and the heart will fail
In treading its gloomy way;
And it wiles my breast from its dreariness
To see the young so gay.

ROMEO AND THE COUNTRYMAN.

An acquaintance relates the following comical scene, which he witnessed one night out West at a village theatre:

"The piece had passed off without interruption until the last scene. The character of Romeo was excellently enacted and loudly applauded. The very model of the lover was before the tomb of the Capulas, gazing upon the motionless form of her who had attracted his soul, and meditating upon committing an act which would send his spirit to that undiscovered country where he supposed Juliet's had gone. Just as he exclaimed, "Here's to my love!" and at the same time raised the phial which contained the poison to his lips, a stalwart young countryman jumped upon the stage, seized him, dashed the phial from his hand, crushing it into atoms, and yelling at the top of his voice:

"Yer darned fool, she ain't dead! Only been takin' a little sleepin' medicine. Didn't yer get the parson's letter?"

"Sirrah," growled out the enraged tragedian, while the house fairly shook with laughter.

"Way, yer gal ain't dead, I tell yer. The way it was, they wanted to make Julia marry that chap there," pointing at Paris, "whose business you have just settled, but I tell you Julia war spunk—she got her back up, and vowed she would'nt do it, even if she war lying in the vault, and the ghost of the feller whom you kilt should dash her brains out with the bones of some of her dead cousins. Wal, her spunk war up, and she took the stuff the parson fixed, so she could play the 'possum till you got hum. That's the way it war," replied the countryman, giving the desperate lover a tremendous poke in the ribs with his elbow, and at the same time loosing his hold.

"Curses on the fellow!" muttered the raving tragedian, as he stalked behind the scenes.

"Wal, now," said the countryman, fronting the audience, "if that ain't a leetle the doddarned meanest cuss I ever did see, I hope to be swowed. That's all the thanks I got for stopping him from pizenin' himself. Hope to be tarnally smashed if ever I go to interfere agin when a feller wants to murder himself," he continued, as he clambered back to his seat, just in time to prevent his upper story from coming in contact with the curtain as it descended."

"Pap, I planted some potatoes in our garden," said a smart youth to his father, "and what do you think came up?"

"Why, potatoes, of course."

"No, sir ee! there came up a drove of hogs and ate them all."

Two old gentlemen were complimenting each other upon their habits of intemperance. "Did you ever, neighbor," said one, "see me with more than I could carry?"—"No, indeed," was the reply, "but I have seen you when I thought you had better go twice for it."

Roscius, the actor, is stated to have had eight wives. "That's eight Roscius.—Exchange.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That exhibiting Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of those facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

$1,000,000

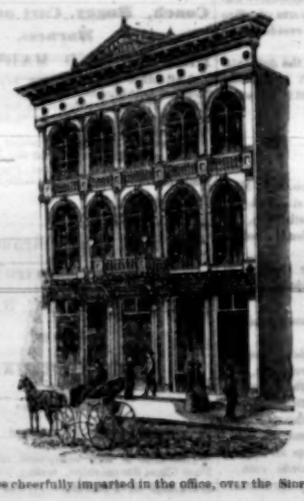
ABOVE LIABILITIES.

A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION,

HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

AND HAS $5,000 NETTED.



Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 104.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBT.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 20th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
